All this happened in far less time than it All this happened in far less time than it takes to read about it, but not a moment too quickly. For when Nebbitt, breathless and aching from the cruehing grip of his foe, but quite "game" yet, was enabled to turn his attention to the others, he saw Oxford engaged in deadly centest with three men whem he was holding at bay with his rifle, which he grasped by the muzzle as he would a club, and was whirling about him with such lightning-like ramidity that it lesked such lightning-like rapidity that it looked like the flying spokes of a swiftly-revolving wheel. He had already brained two of his

Dana and Arthur Fairfax, back to back Dana and Arthur Fairfax, back to back, the one swinging his rifle instilly and the other wielding a keen sword in his uninjured right hand, were fighting desperately with four of the Italians, while a huge ruffian was decidedly worsting poor Roger, who was bravely trying to defend himself. Ere Nebbitt could reach him, Boger greaned deeply, and, suddenly relaxing his hold on the other, fell backward as if dead. The Italian raised his knife to strike the prostrate man, but Nebbitt had already prostrate man; but Nebbitt had already sicked up the valet's rifle, with which he least the villain such a terrific blow on the end that the seaman dropped to the earth

THE GENERAL MARKETS.

A Tremendous Sensation would have been ereated one hundred years ago by the sight of one of our modern express trains whizzing along at the rate of sixty miles an hour. Just think how our grandfathers would have stared at such a spectacle! It takes a good deal to astonish people now a-days, but some of the marvelous cures of consumption, wrought by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, have created wide apread amasement. Consumption is at last acknowledged cursble. The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only known remedy for it. If taken at the right time—which, bear in mind, is not when the lungs are nearly gone—it will go right to the seat of the discase and accomplish its work as nothing else in the world can.

CONSUMPTION, which is Serofula of the Lungs, is arrested and cured by this remedy, if taken in the carlier stages of the disease. From its marvelous power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now world-faused remedy to the public, Dr. Pierce thought seriously of calling it his "Consumertons Cuna," but abandoned that name as too restrictive for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bihous, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for Consumption, but for all Chronic Diseases of the Liver, Blood, and Lungs. For Weak Langs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Chronic Nasai Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Severe Coughs, and kindred affections, it is an efficient remedy.
